JUNE BRINGS PRETTY WEDDINGS AND DAINTY AFFAIRS FOR BRIDES

Society of Week Largely Devoted to Cupid—Several Elaborate Dinner Parties on Calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell's Bridal Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell's beautiful home was the setting for one of the most elaborate and elegantly appointed dinners given this season. This party was given in honor of Miss Laura Nott and Mr. Herbert Dowsett, who are to be married shortly. The dining room was a veritable trypting of love Cupids everywhere. Pink and blue and gold was the color scheme and it worked into a beautiful ensemble. Long graceful sprays of Carthagenus were artistically placed, tilted baskets were filled with this dainty bloom, the long-handled basket being tied with pink and blue melline in the lovers' knots. Suspended from the ceiling to the table were trailers of blossoms. Gold was the color of the table. The place cards were pink roses with the petals of pink roses in wind-blown profusion lent an added charm to the circular board. Just beneath the chandelier a watchful Cupid was suspended. The effect of the whole reflected the greatest credit on Mrs. Campbell's artistic sense. The place cards were extremely attractive. The guests of this dinner are the friends chosen by this charming young couple as their bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell's guests were Miss Laura Nott, Miss Grace Davis, Miss Catherine Goodale, Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Muriel Howatt, Dr. Ferdinand Hedeman, Mr. Dixon Nott, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. Guilford Whitney, Mr. Ed. Hedeman, and the most important man at the wedding, the groom, Mr. Herbert Dowsett.

Crozier—Burns Nuptials.
Miss Florence House Crozier and Mr. Caleb Burns were united in holy wedlock on Tuesday of this week at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crozier. The charming home was prettily decorated with field daisies and marguerites and feathery ferns. Palms and plants and green and white bannoo made the rooms most attractive. The bridal party stood beneath a bridal veil of white daisies, white carnations, butterfly bows of white tulle and white, satin ribbon. The bride was given into the keeping of her future husband by her father. The Reverend Dr. Scudder tied the nuptial knot. The bride was attractively crowned in a fine white linen lingerie gown daintily trimmed in elany and white lace. A large picture hat with graceful yellow plumes completed this pretty wedding costume. Mrs. Burns is a pretty, fair girl who has a host of friends here. Mr. Burns lives on Maui and there took his bride to the pretty little bungalow that awaits them.

Robertson-McEldowney.
The wedding of Miss Grace Robertson and Mr. Robert R. McEldowney will be celebrated on Wednesday morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 10 o'clock, by the Reverend Leopold Krell. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McEldowney. The bride is a very attractive young woman and the groom is a very capable young man. The wedding will be a very simple one, but the guests will be very numerous. The bride is a very attractive young woman and the groom is a very capable young man. The wedding will be a very simple one, but the guests will be very numerous.

General and Mrs. Macomb's Dinner.
Colonel Bell was the guest of honor at a dinner given on Friday evening by General and Mrs. Macomb. The table was a very artistic and pretty picture with its masses of pale pink roses and feathery fern. Pink tulle veiled this pretty arrangement of roses. The place cards bore the Macomb monogram in gold. The hour after dinner was devoted to bridge. General and Mrs. Macomb's guests were Colonel Bell, Maj. and Mrs. John Wholley, Maj. and Mrs. James Madison Kennedy, Captain and Mrs. Cooke, Captain and Mrs. Game, Captain and Mrs. Case, Miss Alberta Kennedy and Miss Margaret Canale.

Miss Mary von Holt's Luncheon.
Miss Mary von Holt gave one of her prettiest luncheons on Friday, Wednesday of this week in honor of Miss Laura Nott, who is to be one of the bridesmaids. The table was

MISS MARGUERITE CREIGHTON

Whose engagement to Benjamin Conrad of the University of California was recently announced. Miss Creighton will arrive home from her college studies shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hedeman's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hedeman entertained very informally at dinner on Friday evening. The table center was massed in brilliant colored nasturtiums and ferns. The hour after dinner was devoted to music. Mr. and Mrs. Hedeman's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Geraldine Neuman, Miss Eunice Pratt, Dr. Ferdinand Hedeman, Lieutenant Burchenal and Mr. Ed. Hedeman.

Mrs. Arthur Hodgins' Luncheon.

Mrs. Arthur Hodgins entertained at a very small and delightfully informal luncheon on Wednesday of this week. Bright colored nasturtiums were used as table decorations. The afternoon was spent sewing and in social chat. Mrs. Hodgins' guests were Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. James Dougherty and Mrs. Fred Damon.

On Friday evening last Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shipman entertained in honor of Mrs. R. V. Woods and Mrs. T. C. White of Kona. Bridge and five hundred were the games played. The prizes at bridge were captured by Mrs. Woods and Dr. Elliott, who took the trophies for first place. George Richardson got the booby prize. The five hundred prizes went to Mrs. John Watt and R. T. Forrest, while the booby was taken by John Watt. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening, and everybody had a delightful time. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Shipman, the Misses Shipman (3), Mr. and Mrs. T. C. White, Mrs. R. V. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. John Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Castendyk, Dr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartels, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. W. McKay, Dr. Hindley, Dr. Stow, Mrs. C. H. Fairer, Mr. Stobie and Mr. Herbert Shipman.—Hawaii Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin's Motor Party.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin entertained last Saturday evening at a motor party, starting from Honolulu and ending at Haleiwa, where a delicious and well appointed dinner was served. The table was prettily decorated in the pale pink and yellow daisies which bloom in such profusion at Haleiwa, dainty sprays of maidenhair fern being carefully arranged over the table damask. The place cards were bits of island scenery. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin's guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers. A quintet club furnished music during the dinner and played afterward for the pleasure of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are royal entertainers and any function given by them is always an anticipated pleasure. The Irwins and their party of friends remained at Haleiwa all night and completed the round-the-island trip Sunday evening.

Schofield Hop.

The first of this season's military dances was given on Saturday evening when the officers and ladies of Schofield Barracks entertained at a dancing party in the Barracks Hall in honor of the officers and ladies of the different posts of Honolulu. Many townfolk were graciously included in the Schofield invitational list and accepted with pleasure. The post hall presented a gala appearance. Its walls were hung in bunting, flags and malle, while the posts were hidden from view by the masses of green and white bannoo arranged in artistic profusion. The many beautiful gowns worn by the women and the dazzling and brilliant uniforms of the officers made it a sight worth seeing.

St. Andrew's Fair.

Princess Kalaniana'ole was the moving spirit and an untiring one in making the benefit luau last Saturday the success that it was. Being chairman is not all glory, as much work is involved that requires personal supervision. Princess Kalaniana'ole is both capable and has a delightfully pleasing way of dealing with people. The luau tables were crowded with tempting viands. Dinna leis were worn by all. Sweets and punch were in plenty. The evening hours were pleasantly whiled away dancing to the music of a good Hawaiian quintette. Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani graced the luau by her presence, an act which was as pleasing to the Honoluluans as to the stranger.

Tag Day.

Tag Day is with us once more and for a very worthy object. It is to be hoped that the kind and charitable interest that the King's Daughters have taken will act as a spur to the public and that all will give liberally. There is nothing more pathetic than decrepit and infirm old age. After a man or woman has passed the three score and ten years and without a home or friends, it is indeed sad. Honolulu society women when appealed to are always more than willing to respond and do their share toward lessening the burden of those over-taken. It is to be hoped that the King's Daughters will get the sum of money that they are working for.

Miss Edith Cowles' Boating Party.

The tug Navajo carried a jolly party of people about the harbor and as far as Pearl Harbor where the great drydock work is being done, Monday evening. It was an especially beautiful moonlight night and was therefore all the more enjoyed by the guests. Those who were Miss Priscilla Elliott, Miss Helen Rockwell, Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Betty Case, Lieutenant Blair, Mr. Bostum, Mr. George McEldowney, Mr. Carruthers, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin Hepburn.

Miss Collais' Song Recital.

Miss Edith Collais' song recital of Monday was indeed a musical treat and greatly enjoyed by the friends present. Bishop Hall at Punahou was comfortably filled for the occasion and the people taking part showed careful and painstaking work on the part of their teacher. Among those taking part were Mrs. John Erdman, Mrs. Clifton Tracey, Mrs. Chester Hunn, Mrs. Howland, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Madu Leyde, Miss Florence Cassidy, Miss Ruth Renton, Miss Marian Haviland, Mr. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. Andrew Poeppoe, Mr. Edwin Gibb, Mr. Clifton Tracey and Allan Renton.

Children's Dancing Club.

The wee tots of Hilo showed themselves very apt scholars and reflected great credit on their teacher, Miss Anabel Low. Every number was well done and brought forth great applause. The Russian dance done by Miss Henrietta Smith was indeed graceful and pretty.
